

The 11th Annual China Medical Chinese Veterinary Medicine Seminar: CHINESE FOOD THERAPY TO TREAT ZANG FU ORGAN SYSTEMS AND TONIC CHINESE HERBAL FORMULAS

Dr. Signe Beebe, Integrative Veterinary Center, Sacramento, CA

LEARN ABOUT CHINESE FOOD THERAPY TO TREAT INDIVIDUAL ORGAN SYSTEMS

In this two day advanced level Chinese Food Therapy seminar, Dr Beebe will lecture on food therapy to treat individual organ systems in the dog and cat. Common diseases from each system will be discussed during the morning lectures and the development of food therapy programs to treat them, followed by case discussions in the afternoon session. Food Therapy Principles Food processing and Development of TCVM Food Therapy Plans.

On the second day of the course Dr Beebe will discuss Chinese herbal Tonic Formulas that have been safely and effectively used for over 10 years in small animals to treat common veterinary disorders. This seminar will discuss the six subcategories of Chinese tonic herbal formulas and their traditional therapeutic functions. Representative formulas within each subcategory with similar functions will be compared to determine which formula is best suited for a particular problem. Clinical case studies and research will be presented on selected formulas where available.
